

BARGAINS INCOMPARABLE

Taken from the view points of economy and fashionable appareling, June is a most important month at this store for prudent and particular women. The price cutter has visited every department of this helpful store. In many cases you will find from one-third to one-half clipped right off the original prices.

Muslin Underwear.

Our recent sale has made it necessary for us to make large additions to our stock. Some new numbers.

Corset Covers at 25c.

There may be better; just look around and see for yourself.

Drawers at 33c and 43c.

On these our sale has been large. Only about a quarter of the lot of 200 pairs or more left. They originally sold for 50c and 69c.

Skirts at 87, 98 and $1.50.

A fresh lot; it will pay you to see.

Waists, $1.98 to $2.50 Values, $1.49.

One lot of White Linen Waists, five rows of tucking on either side of a panel of embroidery in the front; one lot of a beautiful quality White Linen, front plaited and has three rows of a pretty lace insertion. These are hummers and the stock can't last long at $1.49.

The 69c ones are regular $1.00 values, anyway.

Corsets at 39c and 69c.

The 39c ones are made on the same lines as the $1.00 grades in five different styles.

Huck Towels at 2 for 25c.

More of those 34 by 18 inch bleached Huck Towels, 17c values, at 12c each.

The menu will include all to be obtained in any first-class city and the service will be prompt for all meals, lunches and regular boarders.

An Optimist.

The following peculiar advertisement recently appearing in the London Times testifies a human optimism: "Married lady, with five children (husband's income very small), wishes to be adopted by very wealthy old lady or gentleman (without relatives), who would pay for children's education and provide for their future. Replies," etc.
